

K I F F 2012 PROGRAMME

VILLAGE HALL

MOOVIE MARQUEE

GALA OPENING EVENT

7.45pm Friday 11 May 2012

THE ARTIST PG 2011 100mins

The silent, black and white French film that surprised the world of cinema this year; a polished, clever reminder of Hollywood's true sparkle!

1.45pm Saturday 12 May 2012

MAO'S LAST DANCER 12 2009 117mins

Madame Mao's cultural delegates fail to retain control as Li Cunxin, a poor Chinese village boy becomes a successful classical dancer in the West.

1.45pm Saturday 12 May 2012

INCENDIES 15 2010 130mins

Canadian twins, Jeanne and Simon take an unsettling journey to the Middle East in search of answers to their tangled roots. (Subtitled)

4.30pm Saturday 12 May 2012

CAVE OF FORGOTTEN DREAMS

U 2009 90mins

This enthralling documentary reveals the wonder of artwork created 32,000 years ago by our European ancestors, linking the twenty-first century firmly to the ancient past.

4.30pm Saturday 12 May 2012

THE GUARD 15 2011 96 mins

An unlikely pair from opposite sides of ambition and the Atlantic, team up to track down an international cocaine-smuggling ring in this laugh-out-loud crime thriller!

8.15pm Saturday 12 May 2012

HUGO PG 2011 126mins

Set in 1930s Paris, this magical, imaginative, eye-popping masterpiece guarantees to transport audiences to a truly unbelievable place!

Hugo is a true family film, equally suitable for adults & children.

8.15pm Saturday 12 May 2012

A SEPARATION PG 2011 123mins

A complex, award-winning Iranian drama in which relationships are shackled by culture, gender, class and prejudice. (Subtitled)

12.30pm Sunday 13 May 2012

ROAD, MOVIE 15 2009 95mins

In search of . . . life, love and friendship, an eclectic mix of waifs and strays take a (mobile) cinema on a magical mystery tour across a barren Indian landscape. (Subtitled)

12.30pm Sunday 13 May 2012

ELIMINATE : ARCHIE COOKSON

12 2011 87mins

Director, Rob Holder introduces his debut feature film; stolen secret tapes, an assassination plot and a washed-up spy create a dark, very British comedy.

3pm Sunday 13 May 2012

THE MUPPETS U 2011 103mins

Kermit, Fozzie, Miss Piggy & Co are all back in this new Muppet film and the good news is that they are better than ever. Time for old fans to re-acquaint themselves and for a whole new audience to get hooked. Just plain brilliant !

3pm Sunday 13 May 2012

U-CARMEN 12A 2005 120mins

Musical Director, Charles Hazlewood introduces this rousing and imaginative, contemporary adaptation of Bizet's 19th century opera set in a South African shanty town and sung entirely in the Xhosa language.

7pm Sunday 13 May 2012

THE WAY 12A 2010 128mins

El Camino de Santiago is the true star of this sincere, old fashioned story about grief and faith as a disparate group of modern-day pilgrims discover more than friendship.

